The Outrage 260 is a large "center console" sportfisherman. And, from locking stainless steel rod racks beneath the gunnels to a large live-bait well at the port stern, few, if any, fishing features are left out. There are two fish boxes built into the cockpit sole which are 10-inches wide, one foot deep and nearly six feet long. The cockpit is 27 inches deep with a vinyl upholstered bolster at just the right height for the average person to brace against when fighting larger fish. There is a foldaway seat forward of the outboard motor well that stores out of the way when not needed. Forward of the center console there is a bench seat and ...
