2006 Century 1701 console, with a 2005 Yamaha 90 - 4 stroke

Century Boats is among the oldest boat builders in the US, right up there with the likes of Chris-Craft, Wellcraft, and others. Their old wood boats are legendary and they have carried that same attention to detail and craftsmanship into the fiberglass age.

The 1701 Center Console is the smallest of the Century lineup but lacks nothing compared to its larger siblings in terms of design, efficiency, and capability. This Modified Vee hull gives you great stability and a dry ride while still only drawing 13 inches. It has everything a fisherman needs, including a live well, draining fish box, plenty of storage, and a battery charg...
