1979 CSY 33 with updated sails, canvas, and cushions. Ready to sail away into the sunset!

Nice example of a 1979 CSY 33 cruising sailboat. Reported by the owner to be in nice condition overall and to have numerous recent upgrades.

Designed and built with no-wood coring in the hull or decks, there is no need to worry about water saturation so common on older boats. Designed as cruisers rather than racers, a premium is placed on comfort and storage.

The salon is large and airier than most with good light and headroom. Overhead hatches also provide good ventilation. There is a traditional layout with a forward-V, head, convertible dinette, full galley and chart / quarter berth. There is good storage and tanks...
