Sea Ray is one of the most recognized boat manufacturers in the United States. They are known for their excellent construction specifications with solid fiberglass hulls and superior marine material on seats and gunwale padding. While this boat was manufactured in 2005, the Sea Ray quality shines through.

This Sea Ray is a bowrider model that has dual captain chair seats located in the helm area of the boat. There is an overstuffed bench-type seat aft of the helm area and a padded sun deck across the stern.

Forward of the helm area is the open bow with matching seats both port and starboard. There is lots of room...
