GREAT CONDITION GREAT PRICE GREAT BOAT

Considering the overwhelming presence of Sea Ray in today's market, it's interesting to note that the 300 Weekender was one of Sea Ray's largest models back in the late 1970s. Obviously dated by today's express-boat standards, the Weekender was a very popular boat in her day thanks to her clean styling, a practical interior, lots of cockpit space, and an attractive new-boat price. Indeed, the styling of the 300 Weekender is still her most enduring quality although her flush foredeck makes for modest headroom belowdecks. The cabin accommodations are basic with V-berths forward, a convertible dinette, a compact galley ar...
