A Real Offshore Fisher Ready To Go!!! Plus Trailer!!!

Since the original listing of this boat it was submerged for a few hours. The seller reports the engines and transmissions operating properly. The boat will need new electronic and the wood work will need to be redone. This boat will require a close inspection prior to closing by the seller. This can be a great project boat that with a little sweat equity put you in it right. Fresh pictures will be taken shortly to update damage report. Currently all information comes from the seller. This boat will be sold as is.
