Powered by Yamaha's new F225 Sport, this SL210 -- the largest in Skeeter's three-model Family Sport Series -- literally bolts from idle when the throttle is buried. The boat handles solidly; at cruising speed, the wake flattens for family skiing. Then there's idle speed, where all that power settles into a barely audible whisper.

The SL210 includes comfortable seating and all the fishing amenities the anglers in the family need, including trolling-motor wiring, fishing seats and two live wells.

The SL210 has space on the casting decks thanks to its near eight feet of beam. That also means it's stable and roomy enough ...
